

Mini Assessment

Complete the following mini assessment designed to help you prioritize what areas you need to work on first, and receive a complementary virtual call to discuss your results.

	Not in place	Could be better	In place and okay	In place and working well
You have a clear vision for your business
Your business's purpose and values are upheld by your employees
Your business is optimizing its strengths to go after opportunities
Your business is mitigating its weaknesses and is aware of changes in its environment
You have your business goals in place for this year and the next
You review your business performance and goals to your business goals
You regularly communicate with your employees on company performance
You know which product/services are profit makers and which are profit eaters in your business
You have the right employees in place who completely support and move your business forward
You have documented the critical activities and processes necessary to profitably deliver your products/services
You have the right processes and systems in place that support and move your business forward
You are monitoring and measuring critical success metrics in your business
You are monitoring and forecasting cash flow
You are monitoring and measuring customer satisfaction

Name

Company Name

Years in Business

Email

Industry

of Employees

SUBMIT